A consumer report is obtained through personal interviews with individuals who may have knowledge of your character, general reputation, personal characteristics, or mode of living. The consumer reports may contain public record information which may be requested or made on you including, but not limited to: criminal records, civil cases in which you have been involved, driving history records, education records, previous employment history, workers compensation claims history, social security traces, military records, professional licensure records, drug testing, government records and others. You also acknowledge and understand that information from various federal, state, local and other agencies which contain information about your past activities will be requested. You have the right, upon written request made within a reasonable time after receipt of this notice, to request disclosure of the nature and scope of any consumer report. Please be advised that the nature and scope of the most common form of consumer report obtained with regard to applicants for Associate and/or Missionary service is an investigation into past activities, education and/or employment conducted by firms specializing in such investigations, such as Protect My Ministry.
