Would you say the applicant is a "team player"? _____

CWCf Volunteers such as RV'ers for Christ, donate their time and talents to do construction and maintenance work at Christian camps, ministries, and churches on a volunteer basis. Generally they work alongside one to four other couples under the leadership of a CWCf supervisor. Travel and other expenses are the responsibility of the volunteers. Do you have any reservations about the applicant(s) being involved in this type of ministry?
